Knowledge & responsibilities

Once I learn
how to wash my hands
Then I can Go to the bathroom by myself

Once I learn
how to get dressed
Then I can Get ready for school in the morning

Once I learn
Where plates, utensils go on a table
Then I can Help set the table

Once I learn how to read
Then I can read a story to a little kid

Once I learn
The meaning of stoplights,
and to look both ways at a street
Then I can
cross the street by myself

Once I learn
the blessings for candles, wine and challah
Then I can help lead prayers at shabbat dinner

Once I learn
how to change a diaper
Then I can Help take care of a baby

Once I learn
How to balance on a bike
Then I can
Bike with my friends

Once I learn
how to safely hold a sharp knife
Then I can help chop vegetables for dinner

Once I learn
how to call for help in an emergency
Then I can stay home alone for an hour

Once I learn
how to care for little kids and basic first aid
Then I can babysit

Once I learn
the mitzvot and how to chant from the Torah
Then I can become bar or bat mitzvah

Once I learn
The meanings of street signs, and how to steer,
break and park a car
Then I can drive a car

Once I learn
The difference between good from evil
Then I can Help make the world a better place